Online Consumer Resources and E-Newsletters

Everything you need to know about buying, financing, building, maintaining or remodeling your home is available at the National Association of Home Builders' consumer resource website at www.nahb.org/forconsumers. This webpage guides you through every stage of homeownership and helps you understand more about home building and the environmental and community growth issues facing our neighborhoods. Whether you're a current or prospective home owner, or just interested in home building — there's something for everyone.

NAHB HouseKeys is a free, quarterly e-newsletter for consumers. Find helpful advice and household tips for current and future home owners including homeownership issues and the newest products, designs and ideas for your home. Subscribe at www.nahb.org/forconsumers.

NAHB will not sell or provide the NAHB HouseKeys subscriber list to any other organization or business.
